Summer Fashion Tip: Layer Your Accessories

This summer, the '90s are back in a big way! A fun way to play with the '90s trend is to layer a few choker necklaces. The look is modern and will really dress up your neckline.

Fashion Show Follow-Up

The rainy start to our third annual Spring Fashion Show couldn't keep the crowds away. Held at Immaculata University on April 2nd, the well-attended event featured runway fashions, vendors, a silent auction, and a delicious brunch with mimosas.

Wings' clients modeled outfits assembled by our volunteers while models showcased fashions from local boutiques. The show concluded with designs from Immaculata Fashion Group's students.

Many thanks to our sponsors and our attendees for making the event a truly fun, inspiring, and memorable one.

Wanted: Administrative Support Volunteer

Wings is looking for a volunteer to provide administrative support for our email communications efforts. Duties include: managing email communications related to Wings' two annual fundraising events; updating content on our website; monitoring online registrations and mailings; and other related duties.

We are looking for someone who can work approximately 2 hours per week and can commit to a minimum of 6 months in this role. Training will be provided. Following training, some work can be performed remotely. If interested, please email info@wingsforsuccess.org.

A Chance to Thank Our Volunteers

Wings would not be able to serve our clients without the dedicated help and support of so many volunteers. On May 24th, we had the privilege of saying "thanks" during our volunteer appreciation event at the Temenos Retreat Center.

Wings acknowledged those volunteers who have been with us for a short time as well as those celebrating their 10- and 15-year anniversaries. A special butterfly watch was given to those celebrating their 15-year anniversary with us.
