Updates

1. Chester County Library scheduled for 11/12 12 pm- Sophia shared about her presentation- Personal Branding and Career Development, she brought her daughter a college student, 25 participants both males and females attended. Both Jill and Dan stopped by Wings for Success table, we did get quite a few sign ups that day for service.
2. Sheena reported that she has not had new volunteer trainings recently. She will send a reminder out after new year.
3. Volunteer only section of website- in progress, Jill and Lorena met with Kelly Quant (former staff member) to locate the most updated versions, Next step Jane will meet with Lorena to make decisions
4. Suggestion was made to add Sophia's presentation from CC Library to the website. Sophia will share it.

Volunteer Opportunities

- One on ones- Lorena will be sending out to volunteers as she gets requests

Board Report- Dan and Jill

1. Jill and Dan reviewed slides from the board
2. Our committee (as of January 2023) will now be The Education and Coaching Committee
3. We will be adding financial coaching in the future
4. Jill went into detail re our partners and ongoing workshops including New Choices, WRAP (Women Re-entry Assessment and Programming Initiative- despite the name this also includes men). Adult Probation and CC DUI Program, most of these are handled by staff but there may be opportunities for volunteers to do follow-up
5. A question was asked re what New Choices covered- 5 sessions and participants are required to have a completed resume by the end
6. Slides are attached to this report
